
12th of May 2022, Press release about a new musical instrument by Polyend. For immediate release.

Olsztyn, Poland: focused on unveiling new possibilities in music for creative musicians, Polyend proudly presents Play as its latest product to definitively do that — thanks to its open sandbox approach to playing, performing, and sequencing quite possibly making for the most fun sample, and MIDI-based groovebox ever, enabling endless possibilities for fingertip-accessible beats by offering over 30 top sound designer-created sample packs to play with straight out of the box. Creatively combined with eight audio tracks and eight polyphonic MIDI tracks for flexible sequencing and control over outboard devices to act as a compact centerpiece of any studio or stage setup, far from the restrictive realms of an average sample-based groovebox...
